SHAC COMMITTEE MEETING

Minutes
Wednesday, May 8, 2013 at 4:30 pm

WELCOME

Welcome was made by Dr. Thompson, Assistant Superintendent. The meeting was called to order at 4:10 p.m. Introductions were made.

REPORT ON HEALTH SCREENING

Nurse Wojcik reported that 25 people in the district & community took advantage of the Health Screening offered at SISD. As a result, the SHAC committee was given $210 to put in their budget to be spent by the end of the year.

REPORT OF SCHOOL HEALTH SURVEY

Dr. Thompson reported that all of the data has been submitted before the deadline on the school health survey requirements to TEA. This was discussed at the April meeting, noting that the deadline had been extended into May.

TYSON DEVER ASSEMBLY

An assembly, scheduled for Wednesday, May 22 was discussed by the committee. Tyson Dever, motivational speaker is set to visit the high school and junior high, as well as a community assembly that same evening at 6:30 at the high school cafeteria.

HUMAN SEXUALITY/ABSTINENCE CURRICULUMS

The committee then discussed 2 different curriculums for the human sexuality training to be taught in the high school health classes. After much discussion between the 2, Ms. Mitchell motioned that the Scott and White "Wellness & Sexual Health" curriculum be presented to the board for approval and added that curriculums for junior high also be added for consideration in PE classes. Coach Dews seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.
